issues relating to the social economic and political status of india s muslim minority community have been a matter of debate for several decades quite a few state governments have initiated studies on the community and evolved administrative measures on their recommendations as early as the 19th century it self monstualet elphinstone the legendary british administrator put it on record that special measures were required to uplift the backward sections of the muslim community studies conducted by the british administration led to the passage of a government act in 1935 offering dalit muslims reservation facilities along with dalit hindus during the regime of mrs indira gandhi as prime minister government of india constituted a ten member high power panels on minorities scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and other weaker sections headed by dr gopal singh the committee after thorough examination of the social economic and educational status of the muslim community expressed that sense of discrimination prevailing among the minorities and that it must be eliminated root and branch if we want the minorities to form an effective part of the mainstream the indian short story is extraordinary in its ability to stick to the traditional rules of the craft and still demonstrate remarkable originality it revolves around a limited number of characters confines itself in time and space and has a well plotted narrative that drives its central theme within the traditional framework however creativity flowers and a fresh and imaginative story emerges this volume is chock full with such stories written by authors well known in their regional languages as well as those who have made a name for themselves in english literary circles carefully selected by india s literary giant the late khushwant singh these pieces represent the best of indian writing from around the country
